

BAR 1790

wine & cocktails

In 1790 a 25-year-old George Sandeman set up as a wine merchant on Birchin Lane, importing Ports and Sherries from Spain and Portugal. In 1805 he moved the business to St Swithins lane, calling his company George Sandeman and Co. The Cellars on St Swithins lane were ideal for ageing and storing the wines and with an underground passage to The Thames, the barrels could be rolled up to the cellars.

The cellars at Bar 1790 and The Don remained in use until 1967 with last vintage of Sandeman Port being bottled on St Swithins Lane in 1955. Today the cellars have hardly changed from when they were working cellars and now used for private dining, with the Barrel Cellar offering the largest private room in The City. The Medieval cellar is as it was from 1548 and is used for private tastings.
